

"Purple Robe"

DRAWING LACEY HEARTS

(Grade 4 Print: "Purple Robe" by Matisse)

An "old fashioned" lacey looking valentine art project with very little fuss for the teacher.

CURRICULUM CONNECTION: Valentines Day, science and math

ART CONCEPT: Use of line patterns as actual and simulated texture (EALR Grade 4 # 1.1.1, 1.1.2)

MEDIUM: Drawing pens

TIME: 30 - 40 minutes

GRADE LEVEL: 4 and up

MATERIALS: Drawing or construction paper

Felt tip colored markers, older students like the fine tip markers.

PROCEDURES:

1. Demonstrate and ask students to show various examples of line patterns that show texture or create interest. ////////////// XXXX oooooo +++++)))(((

2. Students begin with a small heart in the center of the paper.
3. They change colors and use a line pattern around the perimeter of the small heart.
4. This process is repeated until the heart pleasantly fills the paper.
- 5 Put the pens away you are done...
