

COMMUNITY SCHOOLS' PROGRAM

As a method of extending educational opportunities to the entire community through a fuller utilization of school facilities, a community schools' program may be established. The program shall be financed primarily by federal, state or local funds available for this purpose.

If the program is established, the superintendent shall periodically present to the board for review an organizational plan and tentative program that shall assure that the program is responsive to the varying needs of citizens living in different sections of the community.

Each year prior to the approval of any moneys expended for the community schools' program, the superintendent shall present to the board a general plan.
