

Poulsbo Middle School Highly Capable Service Plan

COUNSELING: Greg Parrot and Doug Segur will meet during the year with each student who is identified as highly capable at PMS to review schedules and options for classes and activities.

STAFF TRAINING: Training is given throughout the year to address Identification procedures, academic, social and emotional characteristics, program design and delivery, instructional practices, and student assessment. Teachers also receive training in use of effective strategies through a series of building and district led professional development opportunities.

CONTINUUM OF SERVICES: Students at PMS have a variety of curricular, co-curricular and extra-curricular opportunities to choose from. Accelerated courses are offered most core subject areas. Electives provide rich experiences in the arts and career/technical areas.
