

Kingston Middle School Highly Capable Service Plan

COUNSELING: Stephanie Robinson and Pat Jensen will meet during the year with each student who is identified as highly capable at KMS to review schedules and options for classes and activities.

STAFF TRAINING: August 23, 2016 - to address Identification procedures, academic, social and emotional characteristics, program design and delivery, instructional practices, student assessment, and program evaluation. Teachers also receive training in use of effective strategies through a series of building and district led professional development opportunities. Teachers of the specialized AGATE classes are provided with training in addition to these opportunities.

CONTINUUM OF SERVICES: Students at KMS have a variety of curricular, co-curricular and extra-curricular opportunities to choose from. Accelerated courses are offered in many subject areas. Electives provide rich experiences in the arts and career/technical areas.
